Someone is Praying for You

Someone is praying for you / Someone is praying for you / So when you feel you're all alone and your heart could break in two / Remember someone is praying for you. What a comforting thought! The Bible tells us in 1 Thessalonians 5:17 Pray without ceasing. I want to follow that command of God. I want to be obedient even in the late night/early morning hours. I want to stand in the gap for souls. My prayer could be life-changing for someone. Not because I'm me, but because I am willing to obey God. I don't want God to say, "I'll find somebody else." I desire that you also obey God's prompting; If someone is prompted with my name, I want them to pray for me. Luke 6:38 Give, and it shall be given unto you; good measure, pressed down, and shaken together, and running over, shall men give into your bosom. For with the same measure that ye mete withal it shall be measured to you again.

YOU Cannot Fix It

This past week I've battled the enemy, who keeps bringing up situations that I have no control over. I'm reminded not to worry. Proverbs 24:19 Fret not thyself because of evil men, neither be thou envious at the wicked: The devil wants my time consumed with worry because when it is – what time do I have left for God? People have free-will and will make decisions that I might disagree with. God, help me to love the sinner and hate the sin.

GOD KNOWS -

Where to start? In a recent church service I was reminded that NOTHING is a surprise to God. When things happen or come about that bother or shock me, God's not shocked or taken by surprise at all. He knew what happened would happen. Why should I worry or get myself worked up? I shouldn't; God doesn't. -

LOVE

The Lord commands us to love our neighbors. Our mission is to pray for and lift up those who are victims of motorcycle accidents. Those who are be in the hospital, without family, or support. They may be 1%ers, they may ride a different bike or belong to a different club. They may be from a different state, or have a different color. It doesn't matter according to God.

Jesus said, 35) "For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, 36) I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me." Matthew 25

Biker Ministry

Missionaries at Home
On the Road – Where They Are

We assist and pray and help in any way we can. Some will need money, some will need someone to talk to; all will need prayer and our witness as Christians and fellow bikers. Get their permission to take their information and send it to us, so others can join in prayer support. Visit them or have others visit. Talk to their families, comfort them, encourage them, and listen to them. Ask what they need or how we can help. Pray over them and pray with them, even if they don't know you are there.

Compassion

Understanding Why

We know why we ride. Many people who care for these injured do not. People you meet in this service will become lifelong friends, not just someone you wave to as you drive by or nod to on the street. You share their misery, their fears and your Faith. Be prepared. Take a Bible to give them. Take something to write on to get their information. Let the Lord lead you in prayer. BE the example of Christ, with love. Be respectful of family, individual privacy, and medical staff there to help. Pray for all of them. Seek opportunities to witness and spread God's word through your work.
